Important Instructions:

1. You must submit a separate Account Transfer Form for every account you are transferring.
2. You must include a recent statement for every account you are transferring.
3. Pending trades, dividends and other activity in your client's account will result in the transfer being rejected, thereby delaying the transfer.
4. The name and type of the account you are transferring should match the name and type of account that is receiving the assets. If they differ, please see the Guidelines section at the end of this form for important information and additional requirements.
5. Fixed Income securities (unless an ETF or mutual fund), proprietary mutual funds, money market funds, foreign securities, unit investment trusts, CDs, limited partnerships and certain other private securities cannot be transferred to Goldman Sachs.

PART 4: Authorization and Signature

Instructions for Transferring Firm

When Transfer the Entire Account is selected in Part 3, please transfer all securities in kind; transfer all cash; liquidate and transfer as cash all money market funds, fractional shares and bonds; immobilize and transfer as book entry any public securities in certificate form or if not transferable then liquidate and transfer them as cash.

Owner Authorization & Agreement

To the financial institution I have listed as the current holder of my account; I instruct you to transfer assets to Goldman Sachs Custody Solutions in accordance with my transfer instructions. I authorize you to deduct any outstanding fees due you from the credit balance in my account. If my account does not contain a credit balance, or if the credit balance in the account is insufficient to satisfy any outstanding fees due you, I authorize you to liquidate the assets in my account to the extent necessary to satisfy that obligation.

Additional Full Account Transfer Agreement

I authorize you to liquidate assets such as proprietary money market funds and fractional shares that cannot be transferred between financial institutions that are part of my account in accordance with my transfer instructions and transfer the resulting credit balance. I understand that upon receiving a copy of these transfer instructions, you will cancel all open orders for my account on your books. I affirm that I have destroyed or returned to you credit/debit cards and/or unused checks issued to me in connection with my securities account. I am aware that if I sell any investments in the account after submitting this request that the cash proceeds may not accrue interest while the sale is being processed. If certificates or any other instruments in my account are in your physical possession, for registered, U.S. exchange traded equity securities, I instruct you to immobilize the certificates and put them into book entry form, and then transfer them. If they cannot be put into book entry form then they will be considered non-transferable assets and I instruct you to liquidate them. If they cannot be liquidated then you should send the certificates to me at my address of record. For domestic U.S. equity securities that are not registered securities, such as interests in limited partnerships or shares of securities that have not yet been registered for sale, I instruct you to mail the evidence of ownership you hold on my behalf to me at my address of record.

Guidelines for Transfers Between Accounts

Review these carefully, as transfers between accounts that are not of the same type or the same registration may have significant tax consequences, may require special compliance review and approval, or may even be prohibited.

Transfers Between Taxable Individual and Joint Accounts

- You may transfer cash and securities between your individual taxable account at another firm and your individual account here with the same name and social security number (SSN).
- You may transfer cash and securities between your joint account at another firm and your joint account here with the same names and SSNs.
- You may transfer cash and securities between your joint account at another firm and your individual account here if the same name and SSN appears on both accounts and all account owners sign this form.
- You may transfer cash and securities from your individual taxable account at another firm to your joint account here on which your name and SSN appear.
- You may transfer cash and securities from your individual taxable account at another firm to your custodial account here if you created the custodial account.
- You may transfer cash and securities from your revocable trust account on which your name and SSN appear at another firm to your individual account here. For irrevocable trusts, we require the signatures of all trustees.

Transfers Between Non-Taxable Accounts

- You may transfer cash and securities from one non-taxable account to another if the names and social security numbers are the same on both accounts and it is allowed under the guidelines below:

Account Transferring From	Account Can Transfer To
Roth IRA	Roth
Traditional IRA	Traditional, SEP, Qualified Plan*
SIMPLE IRA	Traditional, SIMPLE, SEP, Qualified Plan*
SEP IRA	Traditional, SEP, Qualified Plan*
457(b)	Traditional, SEP, Qualified Plan*
Qualified Plan	Traditional, SEP, Qualified Plan*
403(b)	Traditional, SEP, Qualified Plan*
Designated Roth IRA	Roth

* Requires distribution plan from plan administrator.

Transfers Between Corporate Accounts

- You may transfer cash and securities from one account to another if the entity name and tax identification number (SSN or TIN) match between the account held at another firm and the account here.
